Not illustrated. 1920 Excerpt: .Warden shall appoint all officers and employees, the Board of Control hereby recommends that officer in selecting his several subordinate officers, to observe the following suggestions to those specially directed by the statute. Political partisan interest must never be consulted. Competent and efficient officers shall not be removed to give place to those not known to have superior qualifications and experience. Character, intelligence, special adaptability to the position to be filled, either natural or acquired, industrious inclination and habit, a desire to make institutional work a business to be followed, these are pre-essentials to applicants for appointment. Special attention;should be given as to age, previous employment, references and other facts affecting their fitness for the position solicited. The Board is of the opinion that the best interest of the institution can be subserved by appointing none over forty years of age. The Warden shall have charge of books and papers, and of the lands, buildings, furniture, apparatus, tools, stocks, provisions, and every other species of property of the State Prison. And he shall have charge of the inmates of the institution, and shall classify them under such rules and regulations as have been or may from time to time be prescribed by the Board of Control. He shall discipline, govern, instruct, employ and use his best efforts to reform them. He shall cause a register to be kept, in which shall be entered the date of admission, the name, age, nativity and nationality, with such other...
