Of the remaining three, one was from a new state in the Northwest, one from a Southern state, and one stated that only in some branches was the equipment sufficient. To question (2). Twenty replies were received, of which sixteen were negative, and four affirmative. Of the four, not one said that all should be so equipped. Each suggested that perhaps it would be well thus to extend the equipment of one school in a state. REPLIES FROM CITY SUPERINTENDENTS To question (i). Thirty replies were received, of which twenty-eight were negative, and two affirmative. The two were from a state in which is to be found a single normal school, and that, one of the best. To question (2). Twenty-eight replies were received, of which twenty-six were negative, and two affirmative. To be sure, correspondence upon this point was not...
