Introduction Books have been written and read since time immemorial. Reading is considered to be an important part of many people's lives. But with the advent of the internet and information technology the concept of books has evolved and transformed into a new product called the e-book. Available online or in virtual soft copies, the access of such books is much easier and convenient for people of the smart era. Many mediums and websites are available for sharing of reading material over the internet. Kindle is one of the most popular e-book series in the world these days. was the creator and marketer of this famous online wonder. Kindle is a special smart device that allows its users to buy, download, browse through and simply read different e-books. In addition people can also benefit from Kindle and use it as a source for newspaper, magazine, and various...
