Seminar paper from the year 2003 in the subject English Language and Literature Studies - Literature, grade: 2 (B), University of Frankfurt (Main) (Institute for England - und American Studies), course: Charles Dickens - Great Expectations, language: English, comment: Double spaced. , abstract: 1. Introduction Charles Dickens novel Great Expectations as a Bildungsroman or gothic novel depicts the growth of a young boy from low social class origin to an adult gentleman containing the struggles with women, employers and relatives. The main character Philip Pip Pirrip introduces the reader to the novel as a young boy from about six years, although Pip indeed wrote down the story of his life as an adult. Pip has always dreamt of becoming well-educated and of being introduced to a higher social class than he actually belonged to at first. Fortunately, Pip is granted the chance of social rising and he gets to know a lot of people who influence him and his great expectations from his early youth crucially. In Victorian times women and men were regarded to be different in their nature but nevertheless complementary. Women should be a guideline for their husbands in moral and religious questions. When the husbands were at home they were protected from destructive tendencies of the market (Farrell). In Great Expectations it is not easy to find one woman who fits into this ideal. Especially the three main female characters are rather destructive than protective for men. However, throughout the novel Pip is confronted with several women of different calibre, from shrewd and hysterical, cold-hearted and distant to caring and loveable. On the following pages I am going to introduce and characterise the three main female characters who influence Pips life the most: his...
