The content covers the 28 days of Advent, and 21 days of the Christmas season—from Christmas Day to the Feast of the Baptism of the Lord. Noted liturgist Fr. Richard Fragomeni takes the Communion Antiphons from the daily seasonal liturgies and weaves them into a prayer aid that is timely, relevant, and inspirational. Each day's reflection will contain these elements: the date/name of the day (e.g., First Monday in Advent, Feast of the Epiphany) the Communion Antiphon for the day a reflection based on the antiphon a question for meditation and response The antiphon itself can be used for prayer at the end of each day's reading. This handy resource that can be used from year to year offers an appealing way to pray during the days of Advent and Christmas, whether alone or with others.
