Excerpt: .. . 9 The sponsors of the legislation seek to expand Congress jurisdiction and affect extra territory by adding this crime to our Federal code, which others have raised, causes issues of treaty violations. Professor John Baker, of Louisiana State University Law School, recently published a report on this trend - revisiting the explosive growth of Federal crimes. In his paper, Professor Baker writes that over the past 25 years, Congress has, on average, created over 500 new crimes per decade. His research indicates there are at least 4450 Federal crimes in the U. S. Code, 452 of which being created since 2007. And one of the issues in so many of these new crimes is the mens rea, or the requirement of intent or guilty mind. But one concern is that 6598 would criminalize the possession, transport, or sale of a horse that is intended to be slaughtered that it may allow people to be pursued that did not intend to commit a wrongful act. We have heard many stories of these rising rates of horses being abandoned because the owners could not afford to keep them. And so we will be interested in hearing and gathering more information on that. It does make it difficult, like in my days as a judge, when you have got two sides that paint completely different pictures of getting down to what really is the true situation. We previously heard heartrending information about how some horse slaughter facilities, most or all, had to have been inhumanely...
