

On Memory and the Specific Energies of the Nervous System (Paperback)

By Ewald Hering

Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, United States, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . From the PUBLISHERS PREFACE. Dr. Ewald Hering, professor of psychology at the University of Leipsic, is not a voluminous writer, but he has done considerable work in investigating the nature of specific colorsensations and the processes of life. The results of his studies have largely been accepted by his colleagues and his little essay On Memory which contains a popular exposition of this fundamental problem has become classical. Concerning its significance for physiology, Prof Michael Foster of the University of Cambridge says in the Encyclopedia Britannica, Vol. XIX, page 22: If the ingenious speculations of Hering, that specific colorsensations are due to the relation of assimilation (anabolism) to dissimilation (katabolism) of protoplasmic visual substances in the retina or in the brain, should finally pass from the condition of speculation to that of demonstrated truth, we should be brought face to face with the fact that the mere act of building up or the mere act of breaking down affects the condition of protoplasm in other ways than the one which we have hitherto considered, viz., that the building up provides...
