W347 2005k OCLC Number: (OCOLOC)173688812 Subject: Disability evaluation -- United States -- Management. Excerpt: . . . 11 means that beneficiaries from the Gulf Coast can go to any Social Security office throughout the United States and request an immediate payment, and a check will be issued on the spot. Within a few days of the hurricane, we knew that there was no way for many of our beneficiaries to reach one of our offices. So, for those who relocated to evacuation centers or shelters, Social Security established an on-site presence to issue immediate replacement checks. We have already issued about 53, 000 immediate payments. To put this in perspective, in a typical month a district office provides an average of 8 immediate payments, but in a single day we issued almost 200 at the Astrodome alone. We hope to have new addresses for as many people as possible for the October checks, but will still issue immediate payments for those who need them. We're also working with Federal, State and local officials in affected areas to assist families who - after...
