Xulon Press, 2016. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . p.p1 This children s book is the first in this series. It is about a girl who connects her relationship with God to the wind. She realizes through exploring and play that God created everything for us to enjoy. This exciting story is for all youngsters and preteens, and it is charming and delightful. She also acknowledges her love and admiration for her time spent with the Creator and His creation, the wind. p.p1 About the Author Bessie Terry Wilkerson is an ordained minister and enjoys the outdoors. In 2002 Bessie earned a Master of Education degree in Psychological Studies from Cambridge College. She has worked in the Early Childhood Education/Human Services field for three decades. Bessie is a PK (preacher s kid) and loves the Lord. She enjoys singing and writing children s books. Bessie resides in Massachusetts, with two of her three grown children. About the Illustrator Jennifer Cheng DesAutels loves sketching outdoors, rain or shine. Her work is inspired by nature and the youth in her community. An artist since childhood, Jennifer studied illustration in Boston. Her previous illustration credits include a primary reader for an Australian publisher. She is honored to work with Ms. Wilkerson on this celebration of God all around us. Jennifer resides in Medford, Massachusetts with her husband and two daughters.
