

Men Fake Foreplay: .and Other Lies That Are True (Hardback)

By Mike Dugan

RODALE PRESS, United States, 2004. Hardback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book. The title of the book answers the question, Why do women fake orgasm? But Mike Dugan asks us to consider that perhaps foreplay is much more than what a man does in the moments before intercourse. What begins as a simple attempt to figure women out quickly shifts into a humorous and insightful tour of a man's psyche as he considers the influences that shape his character. In a book jammed with the kind of wry comic twists that have earned him an Emmy Award and appearances on The Tonight Show, Dugan takes an unflinching look at men's experiences with trust, commitment, masculinity, role models, shock jocks, cheating, street-corner sex education, and, especially, relationships with women. He reveals devastatingly accurate secrets about the male thought process that some men might be happier kept quiet - all punctuated with spot-on humour. Ultimately what Dugan discovers in this wise, witty, thought-provoking book is that, I didn't have to figure out women in order to be happy. It was never about finding the right woman. It was about becoming the right man.
